The Hon. A. W. Dana, well known in Barre as a former principal of Goddard seminary, and at present district judge of Topeka, Kansas, has this to say of Prof. Blanchard's work after hearing him in Topeka. "Shakespeare's great plays depend so little upon scenic effects that, in Mr. Blanchard's recitals, the audience misses neither scenery or costume. In some respects such a recital by a master is superior to a presentation by a theatrical company. Usually not more than two stars are found in a company, while in Mr. Blanchard's impersonations, a master recites the major portions of the play, and in turn, takes the parts of all the important characters." All lovers of the good things in literature should remember that Mr. Blanchard presents "The Merchant of Venice" at the Universalist church next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 35 cents.

"Escaped From the Harem."

"Escaped From the Harem" is the title of the new melodrama from the prolific pen of Chas. A. Taylor, an author who has to his credit more melodramatic successes than any other American dramatist. In his latest attempt of "Escaped from the Harem," which will be seen at the Barre opera house Jan. 18, he has founded this story upon facts personally witnessed by an American traveler in Persia, which has been elaborated upon by the author to such an extent that it makes a story filled with heart interest, sensation and bright with comedy. Sensational melodramatic situations follow each other in rapid succession so that the tension on the nerves of the patrons is so strong that many times the lines of the play are interrupted by enthusiastic applause. With a fiendish, relentless adventures, who pursues those she would make her victims, in return for the gold she worships so much, her Satanic joy, as their heart rending pleas for just one manifestation of the womanly instinct of honor and justice, is one of the opportunities afforded for the pathetic scenes of the play. The rest of the plot is a traveling Prince from Siam looking for the most beautiful woman in America to become a member of his harem. Mabel Page, the daughter of a Methodist minister, is finally kidnapped and taken by the Prince to India, where she finally gains the sympathy of the inmates of the castle, who help her to escape. The stage settings are exceptionally fine and the company out of the ordinary.

BLOODED CATTLE CONDEMNED.

Sixty-Nine Out of Herd of 135 at Brattleboro Have Tuberculosis.

Brattleboro, Jan. 14.—The Bradley farm herd of Jerseys and Guernseys has been tested for tuberculosis by Dr. J. L. Rathbone this week, and 69 head out of about 135 have responded to the test and been condemned. The cattle tested were on the Bradley, Eaton and Rice farms, all of which are owned by the Richard Bradley estate.

Dr. George H. Stephens of White River Junction, a member of the state board of cattle commissioners, came to Brattleboro this morning, and he and George W. Pierce of Brattleboro are appraising the condemned cattle. The state will allow the Bradley estate 80 per cent of the appraised valuation. It has been decided not to slaughter the animals, but to ship them to Boston, as is allowable under the law, to be slaughtered there and inspected, the beef to be put to such use as is permitted by the inspectors.

VERMONT DELEGATES RETURN.

Attended Conference on Lake Champlain Seining at Ottawa.

Iale La Motte, Jan. 14.—Ex-Lieut. Gov. Nelson W. Fisk returned yesterday from Ottawa at which place the Vermont and New York commissioners appointed to confer regarding uniform fishing laws for Lake Champlain, including the prohibition of seining, met the Canadian representatives. The matter is still undecided and is left with the Canadian commissioners.

Two sessions were held Thursday in the office of Mr. Prefontaine, minister of marine and fisheries for the Dominion of Canada. The matter of uniform laws for the Richelieu river and Lake Champlain were discussed and the whole subject was gone over thoroughly with the evident desire of arriving at a decision fair to all concerned. As the Canadian representatives desired further time in which to consider the matter no final decision was reached. The commissioners were treated handsomely and a harmonious spirit prevailed.

SUIT FOR $30,000 DAMAGES.

Brattleboro Woman Sues New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

Brattleboro, Jan. 14.—Waterman and Martin, as attorneys for Mrs. Flora Johnson, have brought suits against the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Co., for $30,000 damages for the death of the plaintiff's former husband, John V. Johnson, who was killed in Hawleyville, Conn., January 1, 1904. The suit will be tried in the Windham county court in April.

Mr. Johnson was a member of Co. I, 1st Inf., N. G., at Chickamauga in 1898. At the time of the accident he was a member of the crew on an extra freight train which was standing on the track near another track over which a passenger train was to pass. Johnson stepped from his train on to the other track and was struck by the passenger locomotive and killed instantly. It is alleged that the passenger was not running on schedule time and gave no bell or whistle or other warning of danger.

EAST MONTPELIER.

"HAD A BLAMED GOOD SAIL."

Judge Herrick Tells a Story Illustrating His Feelings About Election.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13.—D. Cady Herrick presided at the dinner of the Albany Chamber of Commerce last night and made his first speech since he ran for governor on the Democratic ticket. Referring to his campaign, he told a story of a whaler which was met upon its return from a long voyage by the owner. "Got any ile?" asked the owner. "Not a barrel," replied the captain. "Any bone?" "Not a bone." "What have you got?" "Well," said the captain, "we've had a blamed good sail."

You Never Know The Moment When This Information May Prove Of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Barre to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itches of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

Thomas Brady of the firm of Segel & Brady, residence 91 Summer Street, says: "I had an occasion to use Doan's Ointment in the winter of 1897 and I went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. It stopped eczema on my hands, which was very painful. Its usefulness did not stay there. Mrs. Brady had a sore on her arm and a few applications soon soothed the irritated parts so that they ceased to annoy her. Since then I have recommended Doan's Ointment to many, thoroughly believing that it acts as represented, for during the five years which have elapsed since I first used it, it has not been necessary to resort to even a single application."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
